

Greater Los Angeles African American Chamber of Commerce

AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

The GLAAACC Ambassador Program, a program for volunteers was designed to create “agents of goodwill” for the Chamber. It benefits both the chamber and the ambassador through increased exposure and visibility.

Duties and responsibilities include:

- Greet and welcome members and associates at GLAAACC events.
- Encourage growth by soliciting new members.
- Promote GLAAACC member benefits at chamber functions/programs

Criteria for serving as an Ambassador:

- Commit to one year of service
- Serve as Ambassador at three GLAAACC events (minimum).

Ambassadors will be recognized for their service:

- Spotlight article in GLAAACC’s e-business news or newsletter profiling your participation as an ambassador and publicizing your business.
- Discounted cost for GLAAACC events and advertising.

If you are interested in becoming an Ambassador for the Greater Los Angeles African American Chamber of Commerce please complete and return the application to the GLAAACC office.
